Hand Embroidery

Couture touch

The Yana Svetlova atelier offers couture embroidery as an exclusive enhancement to its hand-painted wallcoverings designs.

Each stitch is crafted entirely by hand using a variety of refined techniques and precious materials – silk threads, beads, sequins, pearls, and crystals – requiring many hours of meticulous work by skilled artisans, with no two elements ever repeated, making every embroidered detail a unique and irreplaceable work of art.

Embroidery is commissioned element by element, allowing each client to curate the desired level of detail, while our team carefully calculates the project cost based on the selected elements.

Each embroidered motif requires between 5 and 50 hours of meticulous handwork, depending on its scale and complexity, resulting in wall surfaces that are truly one of a kind.
